

Nick Watkins

---

From: Orchestra of St John's [admin@osj.org.uk]
Sent: 24 February 2017 19:09
To: tickets@cncs.org.uk
Subject: Ilona Domnich, one of Opera Now's Top 10 high flyers, will be performing at the next OSJ Prom on 21st March

Orchestra of St John's

Ilona Domnich - French songs and orchestral pieces

Tuesday 21 March at 7.30pm

Ashmolean Museum, Oxford

"A voice of silken beauty" Opera Now

The remarkable Ilona Domnich was chosen by Opera Now as one of their "Top 10 high flyers" in 2015. She has a magnetic presence on stage and sings with passion, warmth and skilled lyricism. Her recent leading soprano roles with English National Opera, Grange Park Opera and the English Touring Opera have earned her fantastic reviews. Roles include Rosina (Barber of Seville), Tatyana (Eugene Onegin), Mimi (La Boheme), Zerlina (Don Giovanni), Pamina (Die Zauberflöte) and Gilda (Rigoletto).

She has performed on several previous occasions with OSJ and was soloist on their acclaimed recording of the Faure Requiem and Faure Songs. Ilona has included those songs in the programme this evening.

Fauré Dolly Suite

Canteloube First series Songs of the Auvergne

La pastoura als camps

Bailero

L'aio de rotso

Ound'onoren gorda

Obal, din lou limousin

Interval

Fauré Four Songs

Le Papillon et la Fleur

Au bord de l'eau

Fleur jetée

Le secret

Bizet L'Arlesienne

Orchestra of St John's conducted by John Lubbock

